BLS Course Programme

Language FRENCH	Course Level BEGINNER 1 (leading to CEFR Level: A1.1*)
Number of Sessions 10	Teacher's Name GUILLEMETTE
Course Book NONE All course material provided	Prior Knowledge Required NONE

Course Aims

By the end of this course, students should be able to understand familiar words and everyday expressions and read and write simple sentences and statements in the present tense, including in basic interrogative and negative forms. They should be able to greet others and introduce themselves, and to ask and answer simple questions (such as personal details and likes/dislikes).

Learning Objectives

Topics / Vocabulary	Grammar / Constructions
- Saying hello and greeting others - Alphabet and numbers - The date and the time - Introducing yourself: saying who you are and where you live - Talking about your family and relationships - Talking about likes & dislikes - The forecast	- Basic phonetics and sounds - The noun: gender, articles - The verb: forms, grammatical persons, conjugations - The present tense: regular conjugations and some essential non-regular verbs - Être (to be) and avoir (to have) - Adjectives and adverbs - Where and when: places, dates and time - The basic negative form - The possessive adjectives (my, your, etc.) - Asking a question: the interrogative form - The preposition in front of a city and a country

* The CEFRL (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) is used to describe achievements of learners of foreign languages across Europe, using six reference levels for grading an individual's language proficiency. A student can expect to reach the A1 level in French after 60 to 80 hours of instruction.