BLS Course Programme

Language	Course Level
FRENCH	ELEMENTARY 1
Number of Sessions	Teacher's Name
10	Guillemette
Course Book NONE All course material provided	Prior Knowledge Required Students starting this course are expected to be able to communicate in situations requiring simple and direct exchange of information on routine activities; to describe in basic terms matters relating to their immediate environment. They should be able to read and understand sentences and commonly-used expressions relating to personal information and daily life, and to talk or write simple statements about their everyday routines (e.g., starting the day, eating, commuting, shopping).

Course Aims

By the end of this course, students should be able to ask/answer simple questions relating to familiar matters and background. They should be able to describe in simple terms aspects of their daily occupations and activities, present and past, including holidays. They should be able to read and understand factual accounts of familiar events. And they should be able to write simple factual accounts of their daily life.

Learning Objectives

Topics / Vocabulary	Grammar / Constructions
- Speaking about your daily habits (e.g., morning routine, meals) - Describing an ordinary day - Identifying everyday situations - Talking about one's background - Simple conversational style - Describing your day as it happened - Telling a simple story in present and past tenses	- Consolidation of previously acquired knowledge (incl. the present tense, negative and interrogative constructions, reflexive constructions) - Speaking in the past: the passé composé tense - Negative constructions: plus, jamais, rien - Negative constructions with the passé composé tense - "Back in the days…": the imparfait tense